

Exhibit 18

• •

¹ O. J. Schmitt, Jr.

English US Privacy Terms Cookies Advertising
Go to Settings More
February 2, 2016

Share

Chair Phyllis J. Randall added 2 new photos

February 2 at 9:35pm

Chair Randall presents the proclamation declaring February as Black History Month in Loudoun County, Virginia. Pictured are representatives from the Douglass Alumni Association, the Loudoun Chapter of the NAACP, the Oatlands Home and Gardens, Wendall Fisher, Pastor Michelle C. Thomas, the daughter of Carr P. Cook, Jr. and the Board of Supervisors.

Share

Esther Washington, Muriel Roberts Heanue, Angela Hatcher and 13 others like this.

Chair Phyllis J. Randall

February 1 at 12:00pm

I was honored to welcome to Loudoun United States Senator Tim Kaine. Senator Kaine hosted a Field Hearing "Fighting Against a Growing Epidemic: Opium Misuse and Abuse Among Older Americans". Also joining the discussion was Attorney General Mark Herring.

Share

Karen Hieber Jimmerson, Tom Bellanca, Dorothy Kneale Raczkowski and 9 others like this.

See More Stories ▾